Johns selected as Charleston District's Executive Assistant

May 4, 2005

CHARLESTON, S.C.--- Frank W. Johns was recently selected as the Charleston District, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers' Executive Assistant. In this position, he serves as principal assistant and advisor to the Commander in all areas of management and administration for the Charleston District programs.

Before assuming his position with the Charleston District, Mr. Johns was the Base Operations Officer for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) Support Activity in Brussels, Belgium. During his more than 28 years of federal service, he served in a variety of management positions throughout the world to include Assistant Deputy Community and Family Activities, and Area Morale Support Officer.

Mr. Johns has an extensive professional theatre background as a director/producer in Washington, D.C. and New York City. He has directed more than 150 plays and musicals. His credits include serving as the artistic director of the International Children's Festival at Wolf Trap Farm for the Performing Arts in Washington, D.C. and building two professional dinner theatres in the Washington Metropolitan Area.

Mr. Johns attended the University of New Mexico and George Washington University in Washington, D.C. He also has the distinction of attending the Directors' Unit of the Actor's Studio, in New York City, studying under the direction of Lee Strasberg.

His awards include two Superior Civilian Service Award and two Commander's Awards for Civilian Service.
